

INTERNATIONAL INTEGRATION /

4th Conference of justice ministers of C Asian states and EU to be held in Astana

On October 14-15, 2014 in Astana will be held on the Fourth Ministerial Conference of Justice of the Central Asian countries and the European Union.

ASTANA CITY 13 October, 16:41

The conference is held in the framework of the EU project "Platform for the rule of law - Central Asia" under the joint chairmanship of the Republic of Kazakhstan and Italy.

The Conference will be attended by the representatives of the Ministries of Justice of the Central Asian countries and the European Union, the first heads of state agencies of the Republic of Kazakhstan, representatives of international organizations, academia, non-governmental organizations and international experts.

The Participants of the Conference will discuss the most pressing issues in the field of constitutional law, criminal law, justice, development and independence of the judiciary, access to justice and will discuss the measures taken by States of the European Union and Central Asia in order to ensure the implementation of the rule of law of the EU Initiative for Central Asia, will identify priorities and practical measures for the further implementation of the project for the next period.

SEE ALSO:

OSCE Acting Chairman visited Academy of Public Administration under Kazakh President

14 OCTOBER 23:24

Kazakhstan and Iran discuss cooperation prospects

09 JANUARY 11:25

Kazakhstan to view participation in «Silk Road economic belt» project

11 JANUARY 11:05

Export of Kazakh processed goods to CU countries increased 2.5 times: T. Zhalmakhanova

2050 CHRONICLE

2012

2015

2020

2025

2030

2035

2040

2045

2050